

“Co-Parenting for Successful Kids” Course

“Co-Parenting for Successful Kids” meets court-mandated requirements (Nebraska LB554) for parents who are divorcing, seeking custody modification, or never married and seeking custody.

INTERACTIVE COURSE

- + Nebraska Extension’s online classes are interactive and include teacher feedback. Teacher feedback is what sets the Nebraska Extension class apart from many other courses.

“ One dad said, “I hope to use the ‘I statements’ more than the ‘you statements’ with my ex-wife. Getting angry and playing the blame game does nobody any good — especially for my kids.”

ON-SITE CLASS

- + Offered at 7 locations across Nebraska
- + Positive educational experiences by being in a classroom with others in similar transitions.
- + No need for computer skills
- + Face-to-face learning style

Co-parenting for Successful Kids

This past year, 1,879 Parents (80% online & 20% on-site) from 85 of the 93 Nebraska counties benefited from this class. Since 1999, 15,562 parents caring for more than 30,000 children have participated.

ONLINE CLASS

- + Take class anytime - day or night
- + Can break course up into segments to fit parents schedule.
- + Participants answer questions asked in course. Instructors respond as needed with individual help for parents.

Co-parents can register online! go.unl.edu/coparenting

“... the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Extension on-line course is specifically designed to serve a range of different learning styles (e.g., visual, auditory), is customized to the age of the child, and incorporates instructor feedback on written assignments.”

Quoted in the “Nebraska Parenting Act Evaluation: Findings and Recommendations” evaluated and presented by the National Center for State Courts.

– New in 2016 besides Online and Onsite classes –
